New Gates for Venice Library Parking Lot: ((Linda Lucks President@Venicenc.org)

MOTION: Whereas the gates to the Venice Library parking lot are old, rusty, and must be opened and closed manually, and

Whereas many of the library staff do not have the physical strength to continue to move the gates,

Be It Resolved that the Venice Neighborhood Council shall send a request to the LA Public Library Administrative Division and Councilman Mike Bonin that the old gates be replaced by ones that can be opened and closed automatically.

MOTION: At the start of all Board and Committee meetings, members shall declare any ex parte communications relating to items on the meeting's agenda

B Restoring the VNC's Land Use and Planning Committee's Best Transparency Practices (20 minutes) Jed Pauker jed@jed.net

MOTION: Whereas, VNC Board of Officers and the community at large must be able to rely on LUPC's compliance with public notice requirements and proven transparency procedures to preserve the public trust, and
Whereas, aggregation since 2010 of a series of ongoing violations, including meeting agenda posting failures, meeting minutes posting failures, instances of meeting management misconduct and one or more reported State Ethics Code violations has displaced LUPC's longstanding reputation for transparency and community-responsive review with the appearance of intent to prevent public access while influencing local land use planning decisions and expediting project approvals at the expense of community dialogue, and
Whereas, listing on the VNC monthly calendar City hearing notices regarding Venice projects is a welcome initiative, and
Whereas, wholesale exorcism of LUPC's self-imposed demons without proposing a positive road forward risks permanently damaging this critical committee's morale, trustworthiness and continuing effectiveness on behalf of the community and in City Hall,
The Venice Neighborhood Council resolves:

Venice Neighborhood Council

PO Box 550, Venice, CA 90294 / www.VeniceNC.org
Email: info@VeniceNC.org Phone: 310-421-8627

That VNC Rules and Elections Committee prepare for February, 2014, Board approval the following Standing Rules to restore LUPC Transparency Best Practices:

That LUPC web-post, with every web-posted meeting agenda, a clickable calendar link leading directly to said meeting agenda posting;

That LUPC include relevant web links on all printed meeting agendas;

That LUPC immediately resume recording all LUPC meetings, make meeting recordings available on request to the public for nominal cost and upload meeting recordings to, or linked to, the VNC web site for at-will downloading by the public;

That, when fiscally feasible, LUPC resume providing written meeting minutes timely posted to LUPC meeting matrix;

That no LUPC member who is assigned to a particular project may, in the Chair's absence, act as Chair Pro Tem during that project's hearing;

That every LUPC meeting discussion be conducted in such a manner that all audience members can hear all considerations from anywhere in the hearing chamber;

That no LUPC member may interrupt another LUPC member when said LUPC member is speaking within his or her prescribed time limit;

That LUPC Chair or designee immediately resume reporting status of all "de minimis" projects at each VNC Board meeting.

C Voluntary Storage Program (10 minutes)(Michael A Lipson pnizan@aol.com)

MOTION:I would like to support the request that the following motion be added to THIS MONTH's agenda:!

Whereas the Venice Neighborhood Council had a public hearing on__ December 17, 2013 regarding the location of a voluntary storage program,

Whereas the majority of the public voted to place the permanent storage unit at the First Baptist church on Westminster.

Whereas the First Baptist Church requested to host the voluntary storage program and has additional resources and services it can provide to those in need.

Whereas the Venice Neighborhood Council voted on its own accord to recommend the Westminster Senior Center.

Whereas The Venice Chamber of Commerce has $50,000 pledged to convert to a museum/historical society center for all.

We respectfully request that an agenda item to reconsider the recommended location be placed on the January agenda.

D Final Placement of Storage Container (10 minutes) (Melissa Diner mdiner@gmail.com)

We respectfully request that an agenda item to reconsider the recommended location be placed on the January agenda.

E Reconsider Vote regarding Voluntary Winter Shelter Storage Program locations (10 minutes) (Laura Lee LeeVenice@gmail.com)

MOTION: We respectfully request that the Venice Neighborhood Council Board reconsider the vote taken at the December 17 Board meeting regarding the Voluntary Winter Shelter Storage Program locations.

Please add this reconsideration of the recent vote to the next VNC Board meeting, (January 21, 2014).

We feel strongly that more voices need to be heard regarding the decision about where to locate this much needed facility.

As longtime residents and business owners in Venice, we are well aware of – and have much compassion for – the needs of our homeless neighbors. We also appreciate the need for the whole community to work together to keep our neighborhood safe and beautiful.

In the days since the recent vote, in which the Board recommended the Westminster Senior Center, we have heard many people express their concerns regarding that location.

Please let us know what other actions are needed in order to get this reconsideration of the vote on the next VNC meeting agenda.
