- 4A Resolution Calling on County Department of Public Health to Allow Re-opening of Outside Dining under Film Set Protocols

Whereas, the Covid-19 pandemic has crippled the restaurant industry and threatens to put many restaurateurs out of business; and

Whereas, the recent ban on outside dining will push even more restaurants into insolvency; and

Whereas, tens of thousands of jobs in the restaurant industry have been lost to date and many thousands more will be lost due to the ban on outside dining; and

Whereas, it appears that the County Department of Public Health has allowed FilmLA to permit outside dining on film sets

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Venice Neighborhood Council calls upon the County Department of Public Health to immediately quantify the protocols under which film companies have been allowed to provide outside dining to their crews on
