During my first 100 days in office, I have been laser-focused on connecting with communities in the Third District and urgently acting on our most pressing issues.

In our first months in office, we acted swiftly to declare a local emergency over homelessness, we advanced common-sense gun safety regulations and created programs to help LA County renters, and the Board initiated a process to create a County government that is more transparent, accessible, and equitable.

As we pass our 100 day mark, I'd like to invite you to join my team and me as we celebrate our first 100 days at El Cariso Park in Sylmar on March 26th from 12 - 2 p.m. We'll have food and fun for the entire family.

CELEBRATING GIDEON DAY

Today is Gideon Day, the day we celebrate our public defenders throughout the country. I want to thank our Los Angeles County public defenders for the life-saving, hard work that you do day in and day out.

Today, every Angeleno has a right to an attorney when they're accused of a crime, no matter their income, no matter their race, and no matter their sexuality.

Public defenders are dismantling racism and injustice in our criminal legal system every day that they go to work. I'm proud to stand with the members of Local 148 as they celebrate the 60th Anniversary of Gideon Day!

DOING BETTER BY JUSTICE INVOLVED YOUTH

Los Angeles County has a vision for youth justice that emphasizes care first. While steps have been taken to realize this goal, it is simply not the reality youth entrusted to Probation experience today.

We must do better because our young people deserve better. A series of motions on Tuesday's agenda that I leading will begin to address the deep issues within the probation department.

These motions are intended to release young people who should be released, upgrade facilities to home-like environments, move budget, programming, and operations authority from Probation to the Department of Youth Development, which will oversee juvenile justice through a care-first model.

Our youth deserve better, and I am committed to fighting for justice for them.
