14. WRAC

- a. Motion on Short term rental enforcement

With reference to CF 14-1635-S10 (short term rental enforcement):

The Westside Regional Alliance of Councils (WRAC) is greatly concerned that the Dept. of City Planning (DCP) has not submitted a report-back to the City Council as it was directed to do on April 29, 2022, with an analysis related to improving enforcement of home-sharing (short-term rentals) in Los Angeles – report-back was due more than a year ago, on July 28, 2022. In the ensuing 15+ months, improvement in home sharing enforcement has not occurred. Many permits are held by persons who do not live in the homes being rented and merely claim that they do. In numerous other instances, housing units are on the short-term rental market without permits. Much-needed housing stock is being taken off the market, contributing to the short supply of affordable housing. Shootings and violence have continued to take place at short-term rental units in WRAC Member Council neighborhoods. Properties continue to be rented out in violation of the home-sharing ordinance and the principles underlying the ordinance. WRAC has long supported appropriate regulation of short-term rentals. It is WRAC's standing policy, held since 2016, that the City must comply with its own ordinances and laws and must immediately enforce all applicable zoning and building codes (including ordinances related to short-term rentals)

Therefore, the Venice Neighborhood Council also urges the DCP to complete the report on short-term rental enforcement without any further delay, in order to safeguard our housing stock, protect the safety of the public and prevent nuisance behavior with letters sent to the DCP, Mayor Bass, and Councilmember Park.
