9. VNC Calendar: Adopting Additional Cultural & Community Observance Holidays

a. Discussion: The City of Los Angeles observes an official list of holidays. The Venice Neighborhood Council seeks to expand its calendar to include additional cultural, religious, and community observances that reflect the diversity of Venice stakeholders. Create a Stakeholder survey regarding additional holidays or observances to be included in the Venice Neighborhood Council (VNC) calendar. A motion will be brought forward to the VNC Board for approval utilizing the survey results data.

Recommended Actions:

1. Create and release a public stakeholder survey inviting Stakeholders to select additional observances for inclusion on the VNC calendar.
2. The Outreach Committee will review survey responses and present the results, along with a proposed list of observances, in a motion or standing rule request for Board approval.
3. Upon approval, we will adopt and update the 2025–2026 VNC Calendar.

10. Digital Media Policy

Motion: The VNC Board of Officers hereby adds the following to its Standing Rules: Digital Media Policy - Social Media

1. The VNC formally nullifies any previously-approved or informal in-use, invalid social media standard operating procedures (SOP) which is overridden by the BONC-approved "Board of Neighborhood Commissioners' Digital Communications Policy for the Neighborhood Councils." The BONC policy is the official digital communication policy for all neighborhood councils. It states: "This policy applies to all certified neighborhood councils and governs the use, management, design, development and maintenance of Digital Communications accounts, platforms, and tools utilized by neighborhood councils." Hierarchy of BONC policy vs NC policy: BONC Policies Override NC Policies BONC is the governing body that sets citywide policy standards for all 99 Neighborhood Councils. These policies are binding on NCs — meaning: • Any NC policy or action that contradicts an existing BONC policy is invalid and unenforceable, even if approved by a vote of the NC board. Examples of BONC policies: • Digital Communications Policy • Code of Conduct Policy 1 • Uniform Bylaws Template • Board Member Removal Policy These apply uniformly across all NCs, and NCs cannot "opt out" or override them through local votes.
2. In accordance with the roles identified by the BONC Digital Communications Policy for the Neighborhood Councils, the VNC will have an Account Administrator which will be the VNC President and a Content Creator which will be the VNC Outreach Chair.

11. Outreach Committee Standing Rules Overhaul

a. Discussion: The Outreach Committee will begin an initial review of its Standing Rules to identify any sections that may conflict with the recently updated VNC Bylaws and to note any items that may be obsolete or in need of revision. No motions will be made at this meeting; this is the first step in the evaluation process.

The Committee will also invite the Communications Chair to a future meeting for a transparent, public discussion on aligning Standing Rules with the Bylaws, clarifying committee responsibilities, and evaluating which Outreach tasks may appropriately fall under the Communications Committee's purview. All discussions will take place publicly to ensure transparency and to avoid any ex parte communication.
