Whereas, the City of Los Angeles has no comprehensive and streamlined plan to provide housing in a timely manner and the population of unhoused people is worsening, a road map for the future is necessary and Whereas City Councilman Kevin DeLeon of CD14 has provided one and Whereas it is succinct, well-thought out and on target to actually get things done and it streamlines protocols in place and makes good suggestions for new ones.
Therefore, The Venice Neighborhood Council endorses the plan known as A Way Home, which will be appearing before the City Council for consideration and approval.

12F Resolution to Require Fire Safety Buffer between Encampments and Structures

(Soledad Ursua on behalf of the Public Health & Safety Committee)

Whereas, Venice has witnessed numerous fires over recent years in homeless encampments, in recreational vehicles, and free-standing fires in public; and

Whereas, these random and ongoing fires pose a tremendous threat of serious lifelong injuries or potential death to our Unsheltered population; and

Whereas, the recent fire at 723 Ocean Front Walk (OFW) destroyed the office building at that location and threatened nearby apartment buildings and single-family residences; and

Whereas, the Los Angeles Fire Department has announced that the fire at 723 OFW spread from the large homeless encampment on Park Avenue adjacent to the building; and

Whereas, fires on Rose Avenue next to Penmar Golf Course have threatened the golf course's expansive tree canopy and resulted in the city removing all encampments on Rose Avenue east of Lincoln Boulevard, setting a positive precedence for addressing fire danger in Venice; and

Whereas, Venice has an unusually high percentage of wooden and historic structures that are especially vulnerable to fire; and

Whereas, such a buffer zone would significantly advance the objective of protecting residences and other structures from fire; and

Whereas, there is precedence in the City of Los Angeles banning camping in other fire-vulnerable areas, such as the bluffs along Pacific Coast Highway in the Pacific Palisades; now

Therefore, be it resolved, that the Venice Neighborhood Council calls upon the Los Angeles City Council to immediately pass an ordinance to reinforce and enhance current LA City Fire Code by; prohibiting tents and/or temporary flammable structures to be located within 20 feet of lot lines, buildings, other tent or membrane structures, parked vehicles or internal combustion engines; banning any fires for any purpose on public property within 50 feet of any structure; banning flammable-liquid-fueled equipment use in tents or membrane structures; requiring flammable and combustible liquids shall be stored per LA Fire Code not less than 50 feet away from lot lines, buildings, other tent or membrane structures, and parked vehicles; and ensure all fire access lanes are clear for emergency use.

The Venice Neighborhood Council further calls upon the Los Angeles Fire Department to conduct an immediate study of the fire hazard posed to structures in Venice by encampments and to issue orders for those encampments that pose a fire threat to be removed from proximity to those structures and fire access lanes.

12Gi Encourage construction of less expensive Tiny Homes (Joseph Murphy on behalf of the Discussion Forum Committee)(joedmur@gmail.com)

MOTION: Whereas, per information in

https://www.latimes.com/california/story/2020-12-12/los-angeles-tiny-homes-homeless?\_amp=true:

• Under pressure from a federal lawsuit to get homeless people off the streets, the City of Los Angeles is implementing ~64-square-foot Tiny Homes projects scheduled to open in April, 2021 at an average cost of ~$82,000 per home while similar projects in Riverside, California and other state jurisdictions (Seattle, Washington in particular) with similar shared facilities (bathrooms, showers) have been built at an average cost of less than $12,000 per home - projects which encourage a sense of community often resulting in self-governance of what's felt to be a small albeit temporary 'village' with residents performing chores; and • The sense of ownership and security provided by Tiny Homes contributes to the mental stability homeless people need to move forward and therefore appeals to and attracts homeless people who feel otherwise alienated by other programs (such as shelters lined with beds in large areas shared with unfamiliar people) while waiting for the construction of the permanent housing upon which such temporary housing projects (including Bridge Housing) are legally long-term dependent;

Be it therefore resolved that the VNC Board supports the concept of Tiny Homes projects and, shall send a letter to Los Angeles City Councilmember Mike Bonin, Council District 11, with copies to other Los Angeles Neighborhood Councils, requesting that he:

• Research and take whatever steps are necessary to enable the City of Los Angeles to emulate the Riverside, California and Seattle, Washington examples in providing Tiny Homes to homeless people - including Seattle's citizen-driven model (non-profit enterprises with citizen participation) - to the benefit of the Los Angeles Venice Neighborhood Council area as well as to the benefit of all other Neighborhood Council areas in the City of Los Angeles; and • Explore the impact of the implementation of such a program on the current federal decisions which permit homeless people to sleep with their belongings on neighborhood sidewalks and streets, whether or not in vehicles or tents or their equivalents.
