LJC, committee chair expressed his satisfaction with the committee and its work. The process was unique in its inclusiveness of stakeholder and committee members. The revisions recognize the diversity of the Venice community. New bylaws are one half the size of the previous version. DONE reps explained the contradictions between the 2 previous bylaws amendments and the committee responded to those issues. Board agendas are more evenly developed and slate politics is addressed by elimination of districts.

Motion carried 17-0-1

Secretary will write the letter and send it to the proper City representatives.

DA advises that an important matter has come up regarding Lincoln Place Mediation.

PR/CM point of order that this is not on our agenda.

DA state this is an emergency measure that can be addressed tonight.

CM states that MTR, IM and Sabrina Venskus are part of an ad hoc committee, by LUPC, to participate in the mediation process in Lincoln Place.

DA was contacted by the Council Office in re this matter.

CM states she was instructed by the Excom to take care of this.

MTR: Two weeks ago she and IM became aware of the mediation process. she spoke with CM about getting some GRVNC representation in the process. MTR states that CM told her she had the authority to create a task force, Put IM and MTR on the task force so that we could proceed to represent GRVNC in those mediation negotiations. IM & MTR attended an interim meeting with the tenants on Sunday and introduced ourselves to Peter Robinson, the interim mediator who is putting together the team as the GRVNC designee to that effort. There were efforts, behind the scenes, from Board members and Mike Bonin and the Council office to duplicate these efforts. I contacted Mike Bonin and told him that IM & I were on that committee. I sent Bill Rosendahl and GRVNC, thru CM a letter stating that we were representing the GRVNC and we introduced our selves as such on Sunday. In the interim Mike Bonin came into the picture on Monday and I notified him that that task force had been established. He told me that he doesn't accept these kind of assignments from anybody but the President, of the Government Relations. That's when DeDe and Mike became involved in this, and started talking behind the scenes and putting together another effort in this direction. Had I known that this was going to come about I could have gone on another team and represented the community in another way. I don't want to be penalized, embarrassed, or marginalized in front of the City Council because I didn't have the authority to represent. That's my quandary.

PR strenuously objects and questions the ability of committee chairs to unilaterally, without any vetting process before the committee, to establish task forces by decree or with waves of the magic wand. I find this extremely objectionable and question whether or not, on a parliamentary level and as we are empowered under the city charter, that can be done. Can a committee chair unilaterally create a task force without the least bit of input or direction from the committee that they chair.

CM: The history is that Patty Schrader, Aimco's rep, asked me to participate in the mediation. I remembered that according to the Brown Act that the LUPC, which is a standing committee, can appoint an ad hoc committee. The ad hoc committee is, you go look at it Ivan just like I did. I sent this information out. The ad hoc committee can be appointed to be done and then as soon as LUPC, the next meeting of LUPC it would have been brought up for ratification. I asked MTR, IM and Sabrina Venskus, they are all members of LUPC and 2 are Board members. As long as they're board members they can operate as an ad hoc committee without having public input.

DA: They can't represent GRVNC.

CM: They were representing The LUPC.

David Buchanan clarified that in the bylaws committee the created internal task forces that only reported to the board. They wanted to create an LUPC autonomous from the Board but DONE stated that all committees had to report back to the Board and that they could not act autonomous from the Board. Committees are function of this Board and only the Chair and this Board appoints ad hoc committees.

NN want to know if we can do this now.

MTR notes that we have lost the opportunity to participate in the selection of the mediator

Move that we add a mediation committee ad hoc for the Lincoln Place.

Moved by YG, 2nd by

IS notes that the board can't create an ad hoc committee but that the chair can. his is not an emergency Lincoln Place needs to follow the rules. This cannot be brought to the floor without it being on the agenda. That's the law.

DA: I'm going to appoint a mediation chair, I would like to name Linda Lucks, I would to ask Linda to include MTR, LJC as a members and to use IM, SD and Sabrina Venskus as resource persons. We need people who understand what's going on, who know the law and are expert mediators. The people named have those qualities. I would like to ask for approval of this board.

PR: Again, notwithstanding the issue, we're beyond thin ice with this we're in the water. I understand urgency but we also have standing rules about the formation of ad hoc committees, so we're going to take those rules and throw them in the toilet as well. This is....

LJC: May we create a task force made op of the people you suggest. and that's completely legit that it's not on the agenda.

DA: Can I see a show of hands in approval on the task force. Thank you. The meeting is adjourned.

IS you haven't formally accepted the bylaws which were approved, to the Rules and Election Committee to hold the stakeholder approval election

LJC: so moved

DA: So moved

who seconded....Brett did

DA: all in favor... aye

Bylaws Transmittal

March 25, 2006

Ms. DeDe Audet, Chair
Grass Roots Venice Neighborhood Council
Venice, CA 90291

Madame Chair:

The Ad Hoc Bylaws Committee of the Grassroots Venice Neighborhood Council has completed its work. Attached please find two (2) documents: a strikethrough version of the bylaws adjustments recommended by the committee; a "clean" version of the bylaws adjustments recommended by the committee. This letter and the attached documents comprise the committee's final report. As such, we request to be discharged as an ad hoc committee.

The attached document, as noted, represents the committee's work and is a compendium of three sets of bylaws: The original Bylaws; the Bylaws adjustments presented as a result of a stakeholder initiative and approved by the stakeholders; and the Bylaws adjustment presented as a result of a Board recommendation and approved by the stakeholders. As you are aware, it was a significant task of the committee's mission to resolve the contradictory language of the two competing Bylaws adjustments. That task has been completed. Additionally, the Bylaws Committee reviewed the entire Bylaws, line by line, with the goal of making the Bylaws a more effective, more efficient, and more representative document. We believe we have accomplished this task as well.

Four months ago, the Bylaws Committee began its work. Meeting at least weekly, and often twice a week, each meeting was noticed under the Brown Act, held in a public place, and was open and welcome to all input and suggestions. We employed a round table format and conducted our deliberations by listening to stakeholders, Board officers, and committee members on an equal footing basis. We commissioned three different task forces to work on specific sections of the Bylaws, or to insure that each section was in agreement with the other. We conducted an educational forum to explain most of the significant Bylaws adjustments. This forum was attended by most of the GRVNC Board of Officers, and a number of members of the community. As a committee, we listened to the feedback, took notes, and implemented most, if not all, of the suggestions. We thank you for that opportunity and for the input provided by many of the Board members.

The result of the feedback from the Board and the community, the transparent and open process, and the committee's diligent work has produced a document of which we are rightfully proud. Its major points include:

- Changing the name to the Venice Neighborhood Council to develop a consistency in name with other Neighborhood Councils in Los Angeles;
- A change in the definition of how a stakeholder is defined to being a person, 16 or over, who lives, works, or owns property within the boundaries of Venice;
- Permanently moving the Board elections to September, with the hope that it aids in efforts to increase stakeholder participation;
- A new makeup of the Board of Officers, which includes:
  - Renaming and re-defining the roles the seven (7) Executive Officers to include President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, LUPC Chair, Outreach Officer, and Communication Officer;
  - Replacing District and At-Large Officers with Fourteen (14) Community Officers, elected by a limited voting method; where each Stakeholder gets to vote for only One (1) Community Officer;
  - The LUPC Chair, as noted above, is an Executive Officer and is elected by the stakeholders;
- A strengthened committee structure, which includes:
  - A LUPC Committee, which, after transition, will be comprised of stakeholders who are not board members, other than the Chair, in order to gain the broadest possible input;
  - Referral of most matters to committee, in order to gain a full and fair hearing;
  - An Administrative Committee to replace the Executive Committee, and is made up of Four (4) Executive Officers and Four (4) Community Officers;
  - A Neighborhood Committee as a standing committee;

- An Education Committee as a standing committee;
- Removal of language that was duplicative, surplus and contradictory.

The current Bylaws is a document that well served the GRVNC during its certification process and initial years. The adjustments submitted reflect a maturing Neighborhood Council and its needs to best serve the Venice community.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve the Stakeholders and the Grass Roots Venice Neighborhood Council.

Sincerely,

L.J. Carusone, Chair, Ad Hoc Bylaws Committee
