    - b. Public Comment:
      - i. John Henning presented, 1311 AK Properties presented.

1. Requested that LUPC and VNC request that LA City cease approvals until an ordinance is drafted – when/timing, circumstances, valets required, space for cars waiting, limited on height, max cars per unit, etc.
  2. Handed out information on a specific case including a suggested Motion
    - ii. Jed Pauker commented.
      1. Concerned about noise, increase in density, lack of planning and traffic study
- c. Board Discussion
  - i. Notes of discussion: Moratorium (formal term is Interim Control Ordinance), LUPC should suggest potential issues to VNC, our role is to make input on significant impact on the community, we should make a recommendation to the board, this is B&S (not planning), lifts exist on Pacific/Main St., noise/enclosure, best to create process to address each project until we have a formal guideline, invite applicant back to LUPC based on material change, VNC write letter requesting ICO, including all current projects that include lifts while LUPC/VNC draft plan.
- d. Motion to VNC:
  - i. In order to protect Venice neighborhoods from visual, noise and traffic impacts, and rapid intensification of uses that would otherwise result from the use of parking lifts by right to satisfy parking requirements, the LUPC recommends that the VNC request of the Council Office and CCC, that there be an immediate discretionary review, requiring a public hearing by the ZA or Planning Commission of each project seeking use of LAMC Sect. 12.21.A.5(m) (Mechanical Automobile Lifts and Robotic Parking Structures) within Venice.
