KEY TO CHANGES

Items underlined are changes required by the City Clerk prior to the last election. These items were approved by the Board but there weren't enough stakeholder votes to ratify them. DONE's position is that they need to be included.

Items with a yellow highlight represent new language added to the bylaws by the Task Force as part of the mandated review process. Most of this was taken from either our Standing Rules or DONE suggested language. There were a few cases where the language was vague.

The only other changes involved moving sections under new headings and revising the formatting.
